Terms and Conditions:

By completing this form, the primary contact acknowledges and elects to receive notices and other communications, including correspondence relating to account activities, electronically. It is the primary contact's responsibility to advise RES of all changes to email or mailing addresses and phone numbers. The primary contact acknowledges that upon submission of this form paper communications may no longer be delivered by regular mail. The primary contact may elect to change this process, or to request a paper copy of any communication, at any time by submitting a request in writing to the address listed above. If a lease/permit is issued in more than one name, communications will be directed to the email address provided on this form. RES may, in its sole discretion, provide you with any communication in writing, even if you have chosen to receive it electronically.

Delivery:

All electronic communications provided by RES, including account summary statements from RESD.Accounts@gov.mb.ca, will be deemed to be received on the day that the communication is emailed, even if the electronic communication is not accessed by you for any reason.

It is the primary contact's sole responsibility to ensure email service settings and any anti-spam filters are adjusted to ensure that email correspondence is received from RES, and that communications can be opened and read. Failure to receive email notifications or an inability to access electronic communications for any reason does not constitute an exception to the lessee's/permittee's obligation to pay the account balance on time as required by the lease/permit agreement and the lessee(s)/permittee(s) are still bound by all statements and notices.
